

Persona: Lucas Hopkins

Goal: Changing the modules and automation configuration at any given time.

Note: Being able to add custom informations to characterize each component.

ACTION	Select a combination of client and building	Select a module	Land on the module info page	Check the previous configuration	Change the configuration, pairing or info
TASKS LIST	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Access the web app with your credentials 2. Select a client 3. Select one of the buildings paired with the client 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Scroll the home page 2. Find the right module through its serial number 3. Check position, status, and last keep alive 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Click on the arrow on the left side of the module's info-row 2. Choose a IN or OUT door 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Scroll through previous pairings 2. Delete or modify the previous configuration 3. Pair new element 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Fill the blank spaces with the new IN or OUT door informations 2. Check the list for any mistakes 3. Save changes
FEELING ADJECTIVE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doubtful about choosing the right combination of client and building 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reassured by the presence of a serial number on each module 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Feeling guided to a specific setting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Satisfaction from being able to switch configuration quickly 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Relieved to be able to save a lot of time
IMPROVEMENT OPPORTUNITIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing a brief description of each site and clearly displaying client's name 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A search function could be added to speed up the process 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Adding the position of every single IN or OUT could help prevent mistakes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An info box to write down information should be provided 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing a confirmation interaction to complete the procedure