Prototyping:

The low-fidelity prototype connected the primary user flow from logging into the scenarios' customization process and insights display